BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #3

(6) CHARLOTTE THE BRIT

Conditioner Kevin Rice is going to drop this very nice mare in for the $8,500 tag this afternoon after exiting a strong second in the Starter Optional race last out as the beaten favorite. This hard knocking mare, won the SOC two back, while going this same distance as today's race. Regular rider Gaddiel Martinez, who has been on fire as of late, is now back as the Pilot, which makes this scenario even better. An incredibly useful mare who loves this surface.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race #2

(4) Cascade Park

This incredibly well bred Filly exits a victory last time out in the Alw 1X, beating a very good Village Queen in that event. Village Queen came back yesterday and won the 1X. That's always a great sign to see the runner-up come right back and win. This Filly continues to put good speed figures each race, and now drops back into the claiming ranks today, where she will face lesser N3L foes.
