BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(4) DO YOU LOVE ME

This Filly is making a precipitous drop, down into the $12,500 level out of the SOC $25k at PEN. She has been extremely useful here at PID, being perfect 3/3 ITM over this strip. She just got beat by Lexinator and Dana's Beauty in her first two starts here at PID. Both of those Fillies are outstanding racehorses, and for her to run second to them is a sign of her strength over this surface. She will be short odds, so it looks as if she is a single in your exotic plays. Two bullet works after the freshening.

(4) Starship Empire

He's been a solid type here at PID, especially at or near the $12,500 level. Conditioner Nelson Figueroa is gonna drop this horse into the $8,500 level today, where he should be extremely competitive. Only beaten 1 ¼ lengths last time out against a very good Ceduna. He beat a solid Beach Pass on July 6th, who in turn came right back to win his following out. Just a solid useful horse that likes this racetrack that is 8/10 ITM over the PID Strip.
