Best Bet of the Day

Race #5

(7) SAN COSTANTINO

Dropping from the clouds into this spot after winning the N2L for $20k. This race should be a walk in the park, with this type of class relief. He has run against some very nice horses here in the recent past, including Surly Furious, Petit Verdot, Zoombie and Wrote in Stone. He will most certainly not see those types today, and this race is for him to win or lose. The rest will be running for second.

Spot Play of Day

Race #2

(3) Side Tracked

A winner last out in this same race, he beat some decent foes, including Yadi, his former Stable Mate. Spieth is back aboard for Ron Potts, who is always one of the biggest fixtures here at PID. This horse has 5 victories over the surface, making him a top contender in this spot. He has beat some good ones, Yadi, St Paddy's Daddy and Atlantic Sun, but today won't be easy at all as, he must be on his A game, against a solid group here.
