

October
17th

- Race 1: (5) Bode by You
(6) More Ransom
(4) Muy Chistosa
- Race 2: (7) Aztec Legend
(1) Diamond Hard Stone
(3) Colonel Poppy
- Race 3: (3) Determined Hope
(2) Silvery Rill
(5) Hideki
- Race 4: (2) Golden Survivor
(7) Bummer
(3) Homemade Moonshine
- Race 5: (7) Veil
(3) Never Know Christy
(4) Cozar's Queen
- Race 6: (4) Peace of Ekati
(6) Patriot Drive
(1) Grounded
- Race 7: (3) Dakota Dancer
(8) Starship Belmont
(4) Bali Belle
- Race 8: (2) Bourbon Gal
(9) Squad Up
(10) Bourbon Blast

Best Bet of the Day

Race #1

(5) BODE BY YOU

An incredibly bred Filly by Munnings, who has shown an affinity for this racing surface. Although she is looking for her first win here over this strip, she drops in class this afternoon, in fact a big drop, cut in half from $25k down to $12.5k. She ran a very nice race two back, only beaten 1 length for $12.5k, and in that race "Do You Love Me" came right back to win her next race.

Gallardo is back in the Irons for one of the best Conditioners here at PID, Ron Potts.

Spot Play of Day

Race #4

(2) Golden Survivor

Conditioner Matt Kintz is having a great meet this year, firing at 52% ITM, with 19 victories to his credit. He brings this son of Verrazano right back into the same spot as last time, where he just missed as the beaten favorite. He has superior speed figs in this group for his last four races, and some solid back class. Kintz attracts the services of Gallardo, who was aboard last race. He has faced some solid foes as of late like San Costantino and Wrote in Stone at higher levels, that's why hes the play.