Best Bet of the Day

Race #5

(5) QUARTERMASTER

Another outstanding Claimer to Famer with this horse, coming out of the John Bourke Barn. He has made a great living finding "diamonds in the rough" and turning these horses into little superstars. You could have claimed this horse for $6,250 earlier this year! This horse just kept doing better and better, to the point that he tried him in the Dobbins Landing and he ran a solid third. He looks to be "The Man" in this spot.

Race #4

(6) So Moxie

Only beaten a half a length in a very hard fought race two back against eventual Winner Rutabaga. Conditioner Carol Skawinski is going to get very aggressive here near the end of the meet and jam this mare into this softer spot. She will find that in here and, if she runs back like she did two starts back, she will be extremely tough in this event, especially with all the speed that is on display today. Her style fits this race to a T.
