BEST BET OF DAY

Race #3

(4) AZTEC PRINCESS

A very nice Filly by a top 5 First Crop Sire Sharp Azteca, she has shown an affinity for this race course, hitting the board $\frac{3}{4}$ times here at PID. She just missed by a nose on 8/31 and has run back well after that. She is trained by the Meet's Leading Trainer (Hamm) and ridden by the Meet's Leading Jockey (Morales). Her style should suit this event to a "T", as there is enough speed for her to chase and pounce in the stretch.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 4

(4) Captain Mad Jack

A winner two back at this level, Captain Mad Jack came right back in his next race to run a solid third against better in that $8k event. He drops right back into the same spot where he was victorious on Oct 5th. This horse has been a solid performer here at PID amassing 6 victories over this strip and $202k in earnings at PID. This older gelding looks to be the "Big Man on Campus" today.
