BEST BET OF DAY

Race # 6

(4) MIDNIGHT COUNCIL

A very well bred horse coming in from Gulfstream Park, and we know how good that the form from there transfers to here. He has had two starts on the Tapeta in South Florida, hitting the board both times. In that pair of races, it was against much better, and he should find this surface and competition level to his liking. He has been well traveled and has run in some tough spots, so it looks like his ability is superior against this group.

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 1

(1) JACKIE A

Conditioner Cassandra Judd drops this horse into a much easier spot here today, after exiting out of a one of many SOC races. He will find todays company much more palatable than what he has been running against on the Maryland circuit. He is 6/9 ITM at the distance, which is actually a good thing, because he cuts the distance today from a route to a Sprint. He has the highest last out speed rating of all of his foes, and looks poised to win this event.
