BEST BET OF DAY

Race #3

(1) PAROLA SICURA

A huge amount of back class vs. her foes in this event, and she has shown an affinity for the Synthetic. She was a Winner at first asking at TP, which in turn has the same Tapeta surface. She has danced at some big places and now finds herself in a position to get the victory against a lesser group. Trainer Joe Sharp gets the services of a top Pilot here in Pablo Morales, and it looks like Kodak Moment

SPOT PLAY OF THE DAY

Race # 2

(7) La PANDA

This Filly drops back into a lower in which she was claimed two back. She was only beaten a length in that event and one of those who beat her is now a defection from this race. She gets Morales back as the Pilot, and the connections are going to get aggressive here and jam her right back into where she will be most effective. She is 10/15 ITM here at PID. Solid Runner here today.
