Best Bet of the Day

Race #2

(3) Sparkling Ruby

A very versatile horse that can go on the front or close from behind, she will find today's going a lot easier than her last out against Alw company. She does have a lot of back class compared to her foes in this event, but she will have to find a way to not get into trouble, as she has had a habit of doing that. If it's a clean run race, and Martina Rojas lays off the pace a little bit, she looks to be solid here.

SPOT Play of Day

Race #5

(3) The Best Distance

He ran a very good race last time out, against horses that were far superior to him. Today he gets in a lot easier against a group that won't give him the trouble that he had in his last attempt. His first attempt at Tapeta was not bad, and he should have a solid showing here today. He has a Pilot that has been incredibly good this year, and with the precipitous drop in class, these variables may be what he needs to get to the Winner's Circle.
