Best Bet of the Day

Race #4

(1) QUEEN'S WREATH

This Filly showed how much she liked the Tapeta last time out in the Malvern Rose, after having some traffic troubles in that event. She was beat by a very good Filly in "Our Lady" and beat a Graded Stakes Filly in Icona Mama. She's a serious horse and even though she ran in State bred company last out, that was a salty group and she's not going to face that quality today in this spot.

SPOT Play of Day

Race #3

(5) Happyisashappydoes

A beast here at PID, he is 7/8 ITM here and 3 (wins)/5 at the distance. He hails from a great family, and his Dam is a prolific Stakes Producer. His full brother, "He's a Mess" just won the Hard Spun last week, in a big tough field. "Happy" looks to be in the sweet spot here, being able to beat the rest of this group. Declared may be his only competition here, with possibly Aleman, who ran a bad third last out, but that was against some tough hombres. Regardless "Happy" has the class here today.
