

September

2nd

- Race 1: (2) Silver Style
(7) Con On the Run
(3) Danefield
- Race 2: (1) Double Up Larry
(3) Dancing On Air
(2) Bengal Cat
- Race 3: (5) Q F Seventy Five
(3) I'm No Angel
(2) Our Ethan Charles
- Race 4: (4) Calvin's Ride
(5) Artempus
(3) Runningforjoy
- Race 5: (3) Fortune Seller
(1) I Lucked Out
(5) Swiss Slang
- Race 6: (2) Kitten's War
(4) Saratoga Gaze
(5) Cat One
- Race 7: (2) Naughty Favors
(4) Wherever We Are
(6) Anhinga
- Race 8: (5) Red Pixie
(4) Time for an Angel
(6) Dominant Stranger

Best Bet of the Day

Race #3

#5 Q F Seventy Five

Making a precipitous drop down from the SOC level, where he was beat by a very, very nice horse in Cahiers Chec, Q F makes a start at the very bottom here at PID. His Conditioner is ultra aggressive and with already getting a win and a second with him, it looks to be a play to win, get claimed, replenish the coffers and move to the next one. He won't face the likes that he did last time out, and really gets in easy here against this group. A single for your exotic plays.

Spot Play of Day

Race #4

#4 Calvin's Ride

He has solid Tactical speed, which looks to be the key in this event, as both, Maximum Faith and Artempus, seem to be looking for the front end early. If IROD tracks this potential pace, he should be poised to get the victory today. The Kevin Rice barn has been on fire, and this horse is an absolute monster here at PID, never off the board in 4 starts and never off the board at the distance. He's been so good on the synthetic, and looks to add to the tally here today over our strin

www.presqueisledowns.com

