Best Bet of the Day

Race #1

#4 Curlin's Girl

She's been very consistent here over the strip at PID throughout the summer, having the displeasure of running against some incredibly tough fillies and mares, like La Girvina and Unbridled Peace. She was only 3 lengths off of the aforementioned Unbridled Peace when she went sub 1:08! She doesn't get in easy today by any means, but looks to be able to best these rivals today. She's 3 of 4 ITM here at PID, and does have a Win at the distance, moreover she gets the Jock with the hot hand.

Longshot Play of Day

#4 Kotylos

He was in a very tough heat last time out, only beaten 2 lengths, against a group of Lions. He gets back in against a little bit of a lesser group of horses today, in a race that is filled with a large group of speed horses. That bodes well for him, as he is a good closing type of sprinter, and today he is going to add an extra half furlong for his cause. In addition you get a Top Jockey in Gaddiel Martinez as his Pilot. That is a huge plus, and if this pace scenario works out as it is on paper, this horse should rumble down the lane to capture victory.
