Best Bet of the Day

Race #3

#2 Thank You Amy

She won't be outfooted, as she is the fastest out of the gate of this crew, and there is no secret that they are going to have to run her down. She adds some distance this race, which in all honesty, doesn't look to be a big deal, especially if she can run the same as she did here on August 13th, where she was drawing off at the end, to win decisively. This speedy Filly has inherited a tremendous amount of speed from her Dam, and also her attitude. She's Feisty and competitive.

Spot Play of Day

#2 Aquitania Arrival

He exits out of a tough open $8,500, only beaten a length in that event. He has been running against much better this summer, with horses like Outhustle, Thalberg and Bartulia, and fortunately today, he won't have to run against them. You get the best Pilot in the Colony, along with the #1 Jockey to boot. He's run well here over the strip (7/10 ITM) and has shown an affinity for the Tapeta surface. This horse has also won a $40k AOC early in the year, so the fact that he is in for $5k, at the very bottom, with all that back class, leads to just one deduction, that he should gallop against this field today.
