Best Bet of the Day

Race #6

#3 CANDY REWARD

She's been a Monster here at PID, winning three Stakes races here last year. She makes her return at PID today, after an out of character race at Penn National in the Lyphard Stakes, but don't get down on her that much she was off all Winter. Her return here at PID looks to be a welcome change of venue for her, as she has only been off the board here at PID twice. She's a serious very horse, and looks to pad her bankroll again today. No cake walk though, this is an event that is basically a Stakes race.

Spot Play of Day

Race #7

#4 Revolutionnaire (FR)

A solid second last time out in the 1X, this Arriagada charger comes right back in the same spot, looking like a winner today. It's almost unbelievable that he is eligible for the entry level allowance race, after being Stakes placed in a G3 at Longchamp and in addition also placed in another overnight stake at Tampa. Here he is, coming out of a powerful barn and having a serious Pilot aboard him today, makes him the pick of this talented group.
