Best Bet of the Day

Race #6

#1 Manoah's Glory

Coming off of a winning effort last time out on the Turf at Monmouth Park, Trainer Jorge Delgado, exits out of the claiming ranks, and enters into the entry level allowance. A perfect record on the Synthetic over the Tapeta at GP, Manoah's Glory will attempt to keep that record intact over our Tapeta. He employs the services of "The Lady Erie" Heroine Taylor Kingsley today as his Pilot. She's more than capable to get this Colt into the Winner's Circle today.

Spot Play of Day

#3 Thalberg

He ran into a tough group of Hombres last time out, and Trainer Brandon Kulp is going to get very aggressive in here and drop a very talented Thalberg into the basement level dated condition race today. He's been the betting favorite the last four times out and has only covered one of those last four. Certainly not what you want to see, but he isn't going to face the beasts that he has in recent races. He is without question talented enough to win against this group, winning six times over this strip. If he's right, it's over.
