First Time Starter to Watch

Race #5

1 Souper Sweet Winne

By a Red Hot Sire in Liam's Map, this Filly is out of a Graded Stakes Placed mare, who by the way did her best running over the Tapeta. I'm pretty confident that the apple isn't going to fall far from the tree. You get one of the best Trainers on the East Coast in Mike Trombetta, and the Meet's second leading Jockey aboard as the Pilot. Moreover this Filly has been training extremely well, working the bullet on Oct 3rd at Fair Hill. She hails from the stable of one of the best Breeders in America.

Spot Play of the Day

Queen Anna T

She drops down into the open $5k from the very salty SOC 5K, where she had the misfortune of running up against Half Birthday. Just over her paygrade, Trainer Mike Pappada gets aggressive, as do many this time of year and drops her to the basement. The last time that she ran in this open Nickel division, she was a winner, beating her main rival in here, Mrs. Manicotti. Pilot Martina Rojas is back aboard, and she has already won two aboard this mare, so she is certainly well suited to get her to the Winner's circle.
