SPOT PLAY OF DAY

Race #4

SPAN OF CONTROL

He's been so good at this racetrack over the last few years, so good that Trainer John Fennessy couldn't live without the horse. He claimed him back in June for $8,500 and moved him up the ladder. Obviously you need to raise off the claim, (unless you wait 21 days) and John ran him back two other times without dropping him. A sign of how much he likes the horse, but the Meet is over, and John is getting aggressive here and dropping him to the bottom. His back class is a big advantage not to mention his affinity for this surface (7X Winner). You get a very talented Bug Girl as the Pilot and a Trainer who can get it done.
